RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters.

The Governors Guard have re-elected all the old officers for the ensuing year. The public offices and banks were all closed yesterday in consequence of the day being a national holiday. There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the cotton factory on Tuesday evening at 4:30 o'clock. On account of the absence of the pastor, Sunday school services only will be held in the First Baptist church to-day.

A series of open air gospel meetings will be commenced in Athletic park by the colored people on next Thursday night. Wm. G. Hill Lodge of Masons will meet in regular communication on Monday, the 12th, at 8 p. m. Work in the third degree. Visitors invited.

"Not very many people in town today," remarked a business man yesterday. They are all at home chopping cotton and taking advantage of the fine weather.

The regular meeting of the chamber of commerce will be held next Tuesday night. There are no reports of commit-tee meetings yet. Will all those committees answer NO REPORL ?

Messrs. Evans & Martin have just completed a handsome wagon for Capt. E. B. Engelhard, which he will use in responding to fire alarms. The arrangement and workmanship reflect credit on Messrs. Evans & Martin.

I was told, said Capt. B. P. Williamson, when I proposed to commence horse breeding, that horses could not be raised large enough in North Carolina. He of interest. says he will exhibit on the 15th instant, a two year old, standard bred, grand daughter of Happy Medium and Volunteer that is 154 hands high, and weighs 1014 pounds. Capt. Williamson believes North Carolina, if we will try.

A NOVEL ORDER SYSTEM.

Store Messengers.

One of the stirring grocerymen of Raleigh is just adopting a novel method blooded carrier pigeons, and the birds hall and take the seats reserved for Taylor, D. D. A cordial invitation to arrived yesterday. His scheme is to them. make the pigeons bring orders from his customers to his store, and he hopes by this means to greatly expedite his delivery system.

The plan to be operated is about as reserved. follows: The pigeons are, of course, first to become familiar with their new home. After this the coop will be taken by a boy in a cart in the early morning and the mayor's office and be escorted to the birds distributed among the customers. The customer will write his order, attach it to the pigeon, and turn the bird loose. The bird of course comes to the store at once, and the order is taken and filled. It is presumed that the birds will serve as messengers only in case of immediate need of provisious on the part of the

THE GOVENOR'S GUARD.

Some Resolutions Adopted Yesterday.

Resolved, That the members of the Governor's Guard return their profound thanks to the citizens of Raleigh for their | following order: kind and liberal patronage during the military fair just held in the city for the benefit of the company.

Resolved further, That the special thanks of the company be extended to the ladies who kindly took charge of the fair and managed it so excellently and successfully; for which service they have also the highest appreciation of the Governor's Guard.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers of real estate were made yesterday:

Wilmington street for $275.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, to Richard Taylor; tract of seventy-five acres in Raleigh | line; and the procession will resume the township, on Tarboro road, for $1 in march. hand paid.

H. M. Tupper and wife, to Susan M. Johnson: lot on Smithfield street, 42x90,

H. M. Tupper to, to Sarah B. Tupper; lot known as part of "St. James' Place" near the Union cemetery, for $500. ----

Some Names.

Some old folks say they never knew anybody with long names to have any luck. The names seem to keep them weighed down. There was an illustration of the truth of the old saying here yesterday. Two children were so unfor-tunate as to be apprenticed. Their names were George Alfonza Green Caudle, and Pearl Prentiss Rosa Minnie Caudle.

Local Dental Society.

The dentists of the city have organized a local dental society for discussion and mutual advancement. Dr. J. H. Crawford is president, and Dr. J. H. London is secretary.

Mr. Pierre Cox's Condition.

The following telegram was received from Gen. W. R. Cox yesterday. "Pierre is better to day. We are inclined to think his set-back was only temporary."

The Firemen's Contest.

The exciting contest between the Resoue company and the Capital Hose company will be held on New Berne Avenue to-morrow evening at 6:30 o'clock

ABOUT REAL ESTATE.

How it Sells in Raleigh .- How Some People Value it.

A CHRONICLE man asked a prominent | bales. real estate dealer yesterday what the condition of the real estate business was, and if anything was doing in that line. His answer to the question was pretty lengthy and embody some facts of in terest.

As to the condition, it is on a big boom if high prices mean a boom. There is a demand for lots, and this demand has put the price up so high that very desirable building lots are practically middlings 7 7-16d; sales 7,000 bales.

Some people think that when anybody wants to buy a lot, that the lot doubles itself in value at once, or stands a good chance of doubling its value, and then the owner of the lot will not sell at a the lot becomes worth nothing. The price up so that nobody else can occupy it. It lays out, therefore, doing nothing and serving no purpose; for as long as it remains unimproved it does neither

The real estate dealer said he had applications for a dozen building lots in hand and the seekers were willing to pay reasonable prices but they did not

It seems that only those people who are now and then compelled to sell, part Benediction and decoration of the with their lots at reasonable prices, and if a lot is at all desirable, it is sure to bring a good price; for just as soon as it is announced as being in the CORN—Closed steady; No. 2 mixed 40 OATS—Closed quiet; No. 2 mixed 34 3-4 market there are many applications and cash; June 32 3-4. bids for it, and this runs the price up to its full value, and sometimes beyond what it is legitimately worth.

While real estate is selling very high, there is a general belief that it will get higher in a very short time, and therefore many people are holding to what they have in anticipation of the rise. Now the following question arises:

How can real estate advance unless something shall come to advance it? And how can any enterprise or business come here unless somebody will sell sites and locations on such terms as will induce them to come
